

AROUND LOUISIANA

Whether your passion is the great outdoors, a love of history, the appreciation of arts and culture, or a love of the southern culinary traditions of the region, Louisiana is a one of a kind destination that everyone can enjoy.

The wide variety of outdoor activities available in the Sportsman’s Paradise, the French heritage and culture of Cajun Country, or the energy and creative livelihood of Greater New Orleans, Louisiana truly is a one of a kind place.

The distinctive culture of Louisiana is renowned throughout the world, making it a favorite vacation and relocation destination for many.

The diversity of Louisiana, stemming from its historical roots of French, Spanish, African American and Native American heritage, is apparent in its unique cultural facets: the music of the region, the culinary traditions of creole and Cajun cooking, and the rich history of southern art and literature.

With rich natural resources and a landscape like no other, Louisiana is home to 22 state parks, 17 state historic sites and one state preservation area. From the swamps of Acadiana to the shorelines of the Gulf Coast region, Louisiana is a state with unsurpassed natural beauty.

Louisiana Offshore Oil Port LLC

137 Northpark Blvd. | Covington, LA, 70433 | 985.276.6100 | www.loopllc.com | Updated 8/16